

Non-Postpartum Low-Income Women: Medicaid Event Study

Mechanism validation: non-postpartum women should show unwinding but no postpartum-specific

CS-DiD on non-postpartum low-income women (comparison group for DDD).

Negative post-treatment effects confirm the unwinding mechanism.

This validates the DDD design's use of non-postpartum women as a control for secular shocks.